

ALZAR AND THE NIASYNTH

Feature Film | Sci-Fi Fantasy Adventure

A mysterious alien with no memory crash-lands in a magic-ruled world of humans and power-hungry dinosaurs, and must ally with a banished creature to survive a rising war and uncover who she truly is.

A new world. An old war. One outsider.

Between worlds, she carries a truth that could end the war.

As the balance crumbles, choices must be made.

When Alzar falls from the sky, she brings technology no one can explain and a presence the world seems to recognize. The humans want to use her. The dinosaur-led power structure wants to destroy her.

Hunted and disoriented, Alzar escapes with a banished creature who knows the wild places and the old rules. As war spreads, Alzar's fragmented memories reveal a connection to the Niasynthe, an ancient force that may be the world's salvation or its extinction.

A Fantasy World With a Sci-Fi Scar

A living world shaped by magic, belief, and ancient ruins

Dinosaurs as the dominant power: intelligent, organized, ruthless

Human settlements survive by trade, secrecy, and fragile alliances

Myth and history disagree about the Niasynthe

Alzar's arrival is the spark that destabilizes everything

Main Characters

Cinematic adventure. Strange wonder.

Tone: mythic, tense, hopeful

Visuals: fantasy realism with a sci-fi scar

Action: survival set-pieces escalating to war-scale moments

Emotional core: identity, found family, choosing who you become

Comparable feel: Avatar, The Witcher, District 9

Themes

- Identity is built, not discovered
- Loyalty is chosen under pressure
- Outsiders reveal the truth a world is hiding
- Power always rewrites history
- Progress can be salvation or catastrophe

Audience and Market

Hook: A fantasy world meets an alien mystery, with dinosaurs as the ruling class.

- High-concept fantasy adventure with sci-fi mystery
- For audiences who love world-building, creatures, and survival stakes
- Franchise runway: clans, creatures, ruins, relics, the Niasynthe mythos
- Merch-friendly iconography: symbols, armor, creatures, artifacts
